Conclusions of the Related Parties Report for 2021

The Board of Directors of ČEZ, a. s., has prepared, pursuant to Section 82 of the Business Corporations Act, a Report on relations between the controlling entity and the controlled entity and between the controlled entity and entities controlled by the same controlling entity, i.e., between related parties (hereinafter referred to as the “Related Parties Report”), which forms part of the CEZ Group Annual Report 2021.

Based on available information, the Board of Directors of ČEZ, a. s., assessed the advantages and disadvantages arising from the position of ČEZ, a. s., and came to the conclusion that ČEZ, a. s., did not derive any special advantages and/or disadvantages or material risks from its position, especially with respect to minimum links with other entities controlled by the Czech Republic—Ministry of Finance due to their significantly different core business. After careful consideration, the Board of Directors of ČEZ, a. s., declares that it is not aware of any risks resulting from relations between the entities described in the Related Parties Report against which standard safeguards would not be in place.

Having analyzed and taken into consideration the circumstances and terms and conditions under which dealings between related parties occurred in the relevant period (that is, terms and conditions common in standard business relations), the Board of Directors of ČEZ, a. s., came to the conclusion that ČEZ, a. s., did not suffer any loss as a result of its control. Therefore, the Board of Directors has not included its comments on any settlement of loss or on the manner and period of such settlement in the Related Parties Report.

In compliance with law and the Company’s Articles of Association, the Related Parties Report was submitted to the Supervisory Board for its review. The Supervisory Board’s opinion on the Related Parties Report for 2021 is included in the Supervisory Board Report.
